In July 2020, Jamisen Etzel was appointed to the executive committee overseeing consolidated actions brought by consumers who sustained losses when the trading application Robinhood suffered severe service outages in early 2020 during a period of intense market volatility. A consolidated amended complaint was filed in August 2020, and rulings on Robinhood's initial dispositive motion is expected in early 2021.

After plaintiffs overcame a motion to dismiss, the case settled for $6.1 million worth of class benefits. The settlement was approved in April 2018.

Plaintiffs alleged that Wyndham's websites deceptively masked the resort fees charged at certain hotels and forced patrons to agree to illegal terms and conditions. In 2017, plaintiffs defeated a motion to dismiss filed by two of the primary operating subsidiaries. A class settlement worth up to $7.6 million was reached in 2019 and approved later that year.

Van v. LLR, Inc., 3:18-cv-0197 (D. Ak.); 962 F.3d 1160 (9th Cir. 2020). Lynch Carpenter partners Jamisen Etzel and Kelly Iverson won a significant consumer rights ruling from the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. The action alleged the defendant's overcharged customers over the course of more than a year; however, after notice of the suit but before it was filed, the defendant refunded the entire class – but only the amount overcharged without interest or other statutory damages. The district judge dismissed the action based on lack of subject matter jurisdiction after finding that the consumers' lost time value of money was "too little" to be a constitutionally recognizable harm. The appeals court reversed and, in a published decision, held that the temporary loss of money is a sufficient "injury-in-fact" under Article III of the Constitution to confer standing on a consumer to file a federal lawsuit. In September 2021, the District of Alaska certified a class of consumers asserting claims under Alaska's Unfair Trade Practices and Consumer Protection Act.

Robert Brown, et al. v. Electrolux Home Products, Inc., d/b/a Frigidaire, No. 15-11455 (11th Cir.). In July 2015, Lynch Carpenter attorneys co-authored a brief on behalf of Public Justice, Lynch Carpenter attorneys represented purchasers of MOTOACTV wearable fitness devices who alleged that the devices, although marketed as “sweat-proof” and “rain-resistant,” were in fact susceptible to damage from even slight amounts of moisture. A settlement was reached which provided for full refunds for class members who had previously submitted a claim for water damage to Motorola but were denied a repair or replacement, and additional forms of relief for class members who had not previously complained of water damage. The settlement was approved in October 2014.

Quinn et al. v. Walgreen Co., Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., Supervalu, Inc., and Perrigo Company of South Carolina, Inc., No. 7:12-cv-8187 (S.D.N.Y.). Ill.): Lynch Carpenter partner Katrina Carroll served as court-appointed Co-lead Counsel in this products liability matter concerning the heart rate monitoring feature on Precor fitness machines. Ill.): Katrina Carroll currently serves as court-appointed Co-lead Counsel in this national products liability class action matter relating to defective deck paint. St. Eve of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, now a sitting Judge of the Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. Over the course of the litigation, among other things, the court resolved an extremely challenging motion to dismiss substantially in plaintiffs’ favor, issuing a sixty-page opinion, oft-cited in warranty and consumer fraud class actions across the country. Katrina oversaw the plaintiffs’ briefing on that motion.

FINANCIAL FRAUD, LENDING PRACTICES, AND SECURITIES

In re: FedLoan Student Loan Servicing Litigation – MDL No. 2833, (E.D. Pa.). Lynch Carpenter serves as court-appointed co-lead counsel on behalf of student loan borrowers and federal grant recipients in this multidistrict litigation. The claims relate to widespread and systemic failures on the part of a student loan servicer and the U.S. Department of Education to adequately service the programs and advise its participant. A consolidated complaint was filed in November 2019. As of January 2020, a motion to dismiss is fully briefed and currently awaiting resolution by the Court.

CitiMortgage SCRA Litigation, (S.D.N.Y.). Lynch Carpenter attorneys were tri-lead counsel in this class action against CitiMortgage on behalf of Sergeant Jorge Rodriguez in the Southern District of New York. This case alleges that CitiMortgage improperly foreclosed upon Mr. Rodriguez's home (and the homes of similarly situated individuals) while he was serving his country in Iraq, in violation of the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act. The case settled and received final approval in October 2015, securing a total recovery of $38.2 million for members of our military service.

Pitts v. NovaStar Home Loans, Inc. et al., (S.D. Ga.). Lynch Carpenter attorneys were co-lead counsel for plaintiffs in this national RESPA class action. Kahrer v. Ameriquest Mortgage Co., (W.D. Pa./MDL N.D. Ill.). Lynch Carpenter attorneys were counsel for plaintiff in connection with this consolidated group of class actions alleging the existence of a kick-back scheme in violation of RESPA, along with numerous other unfair lending practices. The specific case being handled by Lynch Carpenter attorneys created new law under RESPA. Specifically, Lynch Carpenter attorneys filed this action as a test case to challenge what they viewed as a negative trend in the law regarding how federal trial courts were determining whether a consumer has standing to sue under RESPA, as well as the manner in which damages are calculated under RESPA. Every prior federal trial court to consider these issues had sided with defendants. In opposing the Ameriquest motion to dismiss that was filed in this case, Lynch Carpenter attorneys argued that these other federal trial courts had fundamentally misinterpreted the legislative history of RESPA in their decisions to dismiss the prior cases. In a seminal decision, the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania departed from the holdings issued by these other federal courts, denying the motion to dismiss. See Kahrer v. Ameriquest Mortgage Co., 418 F.Supp.2d 748 (W.D. Pa. 2006) (Hay, J.). Multiple federal courts of appeals have adopted the Kahrer reasoning, including at least the Sixth and Third Circuits. This case was ultimately settled as part of MDL proceedings against Ameriquest in the Northern District of Illinois, and final approval of the settlement was granted.

Bannon v. First One Lending, Inc., (C.P., Allegheny County, Pennsylvania). Lynch Carpenter attorneys were co-lead counsel in this class action filed on behalf of Pennsylvania second mortgage loan borrowers alleging that they were charged excessive settlement fees in violation of the Pennsylvania Secondary Mortgage Loan Act. Committee. On October 19, 2021, the Honorable J. Michelle Childs denied Blackbaud’s motion to dismiss Plaintiffs’ negligence and gross negligence claims.

In re Equifax, Inc. Customer Data Security Breach Litig., MDL 2800 (N.D. Ga.). The Equifax data breach compromised the nation’s entire credit reporting system. Lynch Carpenter founder Gary Lynch was retained by the Independent Community Bankers of America, along with several banks and credit unions, to institute litigation against Equifax on behalf of a class of all financial institutions in the nation for damages resulting from the data breach. The financial institutions, as providers and purchasers of information within the credit reporting system, were severely impacted by the Equifax data breach, in which 147.9 million U.S. consumers – roughly 46% of the U.S. population and nearly 60% of all adults in the U.S. – had their highly sensitive personally identifying information (“PII”) and payment card data (“PCD”) compromised between May and July 2017 (the “Data Breach”). More than 400 lawsuits filed by consumers and financial institutions were consolidated in the MDL. Gary Lynch was appointed co-lead counsel for financial institution plaintiffs in this multidistrict litigation. After significant dispositive motions practice and initial rounds of discovery, the parties negotiated a settlement of the financial institution class action that provides up to $7.75 million in cash benefits, plus additional injunctive relief. First Choice Federal Credit Union v. The Wendy’s Company et al, 2:16-cv-0506, (W.D. Pa.). This class action arose out of a data breach alleged to have begun in October 2015, when computer hackers installed malware on the point-of-sale systems of Wendy’s franchised restaurants for the purpose of capturing and ex-filtrating customer payment card data (the “Data Breach”). It is estimated that approximately 18 million payment cards were exposed in the Data Breach. The United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania consolidated several proposed class actions and appointed Gary Lynch as Co-lead Counsel on behalf of the Plaintiff financial institutions. Plaintiffs filed an early motion seeking to apply Ohio law to Plaintiffs’ claims on a nationwide basis, proposing to the Court that the choice of law issue, which is normally not decided until the class certification or summary judgment stage, could be decided early, under Rule 1’s mandate that the rules be interpreted to “secure the just, speedy and inexpensive determination of every action and proceeding.” Wendy’s opposed the motion. On June 6, 2018, the Court adopted the Magistrate’s Report and Recommendation to grant the motion and to apply Ohio law to the negligence and negligence per se claims. In November 2018, after three rounds of in-person mediation, Wendy’s agreed to pay $50 million into a non-reversionary fund and to adopt and/or maintain certain reasonable safeguards to manage its data security risks. When the settlement received final approval in November 2019, the Honorable Maureen P. Kelly noted Class Counsel’s “national reputation,” “significant experience in these types of class actions and in data breach litigation,” and “high level of skill and efficiency.” Judge Kelly further explained:

This case has gone on for three and a half years...This was a very involved case and everyone brought to the table an incredible wealth of knowledge, was always prepared, really was thorough and professional in everything that was provided to the Court. And as involved as this case was, if every case I had was as well organized and professionally presented as this case has been, my life would be much easier... The briefs I got in this case and any filings were just so well-done and detailed. And my law clerks and I have discussed that a number of times. I want to thank counsel for the way you have conducted yourselves and the way you’ve all presented this case.

Over forty financial institutions and seventeen credit union associations filed a consolidated complaint in May 2015. Judge Thrash denied the majority of Home Depot’s motion to dismiss on May 18, 2016. In September 2017, the Court granted final approval to a comprehensive class settlement that provides over $27 million in relief to the financial institution class.

After overcoming a motion to dismiss and engaging in substantial discovery, the parties negotiated a class action settlement, which was approved in 2019. Lynch Carpenter is representing several employees of the health care group UPMC in a class action stemming from a breach of UPMC's personnel files. On November 21, 2018, the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania issued a landmark decision, reversing two lower courts, regarding the viability of common law negligence claims in the wake of a data breach. The Court found that UPMC engaged in affirmative conduct by collecting and storing employee data, and that general principles of negligence support holding actors to “a duty to others to exercise the care of a reasonable man to protect [others] against an unreasonable risk of harm to them arising out of the act.” As to the economic loss doctrine, the Court agreed with Plaintiffs’ interpretation of Pennsylvania legal precedent on the issue, finding that the question of whether the economic loss doctrine applies necessarily turns on the “source of the duty alleged,” and, accordingly, a plaintiff may seek pecuniary damages under a negligence theory if the duty sought to be enforced arises independently of any contractual relationship between the parties. After remand to the trial court, additional motions practice, and initiating discovery, the parties reached a settlement that received preliminary approval.

In re Anthem, Inc. Customer Data Security Breach Litig., No. 5:15-md-02617, MDL 2617 (N.D. Cal.). The case was consolidated and transferred to the Central District of California in April 2016, and Gary Lynch was appointed to the Plaintiffs’ Steering Committee. In March 2017, District Judge Staton granted in part and denied in part a motion to dismiss, leaving the most significant claims intact and granting plaintiffs leave to re-plead the dismissed counts. After plaintiffs filed a second consolidated amended complaint, a second motion to dismiss was denied in July 2017. Vizio’s attempt to certify an interlocutory appeal was denied in October 2017. The parties reached a proposed settlement including a $1.1 million settlement fund and alternative forms of relief. The settlement was approved in May 2018.

Gary Lynch served as Counsel of Record before the United States Supreme Court in an appeal addressing the application of mootness principles in a putative collective action filed under Section 216(b) of the Fair Labor Standards Act. When defendant served the plaintiff with a Rule 68 offer of judgment for “make whole” relief, the district court dismissed the case as moot. Gary Lynch successfully argued the appeal in the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, which held that the FLSA collective action did not become moot upon the plaintiff’s receipt of a Rule 68 offer of judgment for full satisfaction of her individual claim. The Supreme Court reversed in a 5-4 opinion, with Justice Kagan writing a strong dissent on behalf of our client—a position which was subsequently adopted by the majority of the Court in Campbell-Ewald Co. v. Gomez, 577 U.S. 153 (2016). Plaintiff’s position before the Supreme Court was supported by the United States as Amicus Curiae.

It is essential that the parties to class action settlements have complete assurance that a settlement agreement is binding once it is reached. The fact that a settlement agreement is governed by Rule 23 does not diminish its enforceability as a contract. Where, as here, the parties have executed an agreement, a party cannot avoid its independent contractual obligations simply because a change in the law confers upon it a benefit that could have altered the settlement calculus.

CIVIL RIGHTS

ADA (Americans with Disabilities Act) Accessibility Litigation. Lynch Carpenter is currently counsel for plaintiffs in a substantial number of putative class actions filed on behalf of individuals with disabilities to enforce the ADA's accessibility requirements. Over the last eight years, Lynch Carpenter attorneys have represented the visually disabled in seeking improved access to ATMs, Point of Sale devices, automated retail kiosks, and websites.

In January 2016, Magistrate Judge Robert C. Mitchell of the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania recommended certification of a national class of mobility-disabled individuals who were denied full and equal access to Cracker Barrel stores due to the company's inadequate centralized ADA maintenance policies. Cracker Barrel has over 630 stores across the country. The report and recommendation was adopted by District Judge Mark Hornak in July 2016. The case subsequently settled, securing injunctive relief for the nationwide class.

More recently, Lynch Carpenter attorneys were representing an individual with a mobility disability in Egan v. Live Nation Worldwide, Inc., 2:17-cv-445 (W.D. Pa.). The claims involve wheelchair inaccessibility and ticket unavailability at Pittsburgh-area concert events promoted by Live Nation and ticketed by Ticketmaster. In March 2018, Judge Mark Hornak denied Live Nation's attempt to force arbitration of the potential class action. On appeal, the Third Circuit remanded the arbitration question for trial on disputed factual issues. The case settled before trial.

Lynch Carpenter attorneys also recently defeated efforts by Uber Technologies to force individuals with mobility disabilities who are unable to use Uber's ride share services because they are not wheelchair accessible to arbitrate their case despite that none of the plaintiffs ever agreed to any terms of service. The Third Circuit rejected Uber's argument that there was agreement by estoppel. The case is currently being litigated in the district court.
